

Applying a realistic medicine approach to antimicrobial therapy

Friday 15th March, 10.00am–2.00pm.

Delta House, 50 West Nile Street, Glasgow G1 2NP

Twitter #AbxMar2019

09.30	REGISTRATION AND COFFEE
10.00	Welcome and overview of today's programme Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group
10.15	Choosing Wisely UK – shared decision making in managing infections Gavin Barlow, British Society for Antimicrobial Chemotherapy
11.00	Antibiotic use at the end of life – evidence and audit data Dr Jack Fairweather, Scottish Clinical Leadership Fellow, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow
11:30	Review of emerging safety issues with antimicrobials Ms Amy Brown, Antimicrobial Pharmacist, NHS greater Glasgow and Clyde
11.45	BRUNCH
12.15	Shorter antibiotic courses in community infections – what does guidance and national data show Mr William Malcolm, Lead for AMR Programme, Health Protection Scotland
12.40	Shorter antibiotic courses in hospital infections – emerging evidence Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group
13.00	SAPG guidance on candidaemia – opportunities to reduce antifungal use? Dr Jacqueline Sneddon, Project Lead for SAPG
13.10	Antimicrobial Pharmacist Ward Rounds – national review of practice Ms Kerridh-Ann Calder, Antimicrobial Pharmacist, NHS Ayrshire and Arran
13.30	Scottish Antimicrobial Nursing Group – update on current activities TBC
13.50	Closing remarks Dr Andrew Seaton
14.00	CLOSE