>24 hours (Haemodynamically stable with no signs of fever)

Antibiotic IV to Oral switch — It’s everyone's business
Use the ACED tool to help you decide

Observations stable with improving signs and symptoms of infection

Patient can swallow and tolerate oral fluids/enteral device in place and no malabsorption

Not high-risk or deep-seated infection examples include:
Endocarditis, osteomyelitis, bacteraemia

AFEBRILE

CLINICALLY IMPROVING

EATING & DRINKING

NOT DEEP SEATED