

Antimicrobial stewardship during COVID–19: reflections and recovery

Tuesday 18th May 2021 10am-1pm

Click here to join the meeting

Twitter #AbxMay2021

10.00	Welcome and overview of today's programme Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group
10.10	Update on national surveillance data William Malcolm, AMR Lead, National ARHAI
10.30	Dental stewardship - update on achievements and new work plan Dr Andrew Smith, Chair of SAPG Dental sub-group
10.45	Update on Out-patient Antibiotic Therapy work Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group
11.00	Reflections on stewardship during the pandemic and plans for future NHS Grampian – Dr Sarathy Anbuselvam, Internal Medicine Trainee General discussion
11.30	Break
11.40	Antimicrobial stewardship and HEPMA – supporting a national approach <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• National data flows and analytics Prof Marion Bennie, Chief Pharmacist Public Health Scotland</li><li>• Overview of Healthcare Improvement Scotland HEPMA learning system Lisa Taylor, Senior Project Officer, Medicines &amp; Pharmacy, HIS</li><li>• Sharing local success<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>○ NHS Ayrshire and Arran - Kayleigh Hamilton, Senior Pharmacist- Antimicrobial Pharmacotherapy &amp; Richard Cottrell, Principal Pharmacist - Electronic Prescribing</li><li>○ NHS Dumfries and Galloway - Susan Coyle, Antimicrobials Pharmacist</li></ul></li><li>• Discussion – ideas for change</li></ul>
12.50	Closing remarks Dr Andrew Seaton
13.00	CLOSE