

Antimicrobial Stewardship: Celtic Connections

Wednesday 30 November 2022, 2-5pm, via MS Teams

Please register here

#AbxNov2022

| | |
|---|--|
| 14.00 | Welcome Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group |
| 14.05 | Key findings from SONAAR report 2021 William Malcolm, Pharmaceutical Adviser, Clinical Lead for Scottish One Health Antimicrobial Use (SONAAR) and Antimicrobial Resistance Programme, Antimicrobial Resistance and Healthcare Associated Infection (ARHAI) Scotland |
| 14:25 | Challenges of antibiotic use in farming Iain McCormick, Veterinary Investigation Officer, Scotland's Rural College |
| 14:45 | Question & answer session |
| 14:55 | Break |
| Antimicrobial stewardship national updates | |
| 15:05 | Overview of antimicrobial stewardship in Scotland Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group |
| 15:25 | Overview of antimicrobial stewardship in Northern Ireland Fidelma Magee, Principal Pharmacist and Antimicrobial Lead, Northern Health and Social Care Trust |
| 15:45 | Overview of antimicrobial stewardship in Wales, with focus on primary care Meryl Davies, Lead Antimicrobial Pharmacist - Primary and Community Care, Public Health Wales |
| 16:05 | Question & answer session |
| Opportunities for collaborative working | |
| 16:15 | Group discussion and feedback |
| 16.50 | Closing remarks Dr Andrew Seaton, Chair of Scottish Antimicrobial Prescribing Group |
| 17.00 | Close |